1. SUPPLY OBLIGATION ARRANGEMENT

The following general terms of business are always to be considered applicable to every order made by the buyer. Therefore, any supply clause written by the buyer on his orders or any other document given to the seller, which may result to be conflicting with the present general conditions, will be considered not written. The buyer has to forward the orders to the seller in writing. The seller reserves the authority to accept telephone and verbal orders. The order is to be considered executed when the buyer receives the written acceptance of the same (order confirmation) by the vendor or, in the absence thereof, automatically 15 days after the order receipt by the seller. All offers and prices are just an indication and are not binding. Therefore the seller considers himself to be bound only to what is declared in his order confirmations.

2. TERMS FOR DELIVERY

The delivery dates indicated by the seller as well as the ones written on the buyers' orders have to be considered just as an indication and are not binding and are subject to the punctual supply by the buyer of all the specifics, to the variations due to the availability of the goods with the suppliers or to reasons of force majeure: delays in the delivery due to said availability variations are not attributable to the seller, who is not in duty bound to the compensation for damages suffered by the buyer. Reasons of force majeure have also to be considered the accidents (industrial injury, disease, etc) and any other circumstances which may cause a total or partial job reduction, as well as the lack of raw materials, troubles with transportation, etc. The seller reserves the authority to suspend the delivery of the goods if the buyer has not seen to the payment of the invoices relative to other supplies whose terms of payment are overdue. The goods are understood as being delivered for all intents and purposes to the buyer from the time they were picked up by the carrier or the buyer himself at the seller's warehouse.

3. PAYMENT AND TERMS OF PAYMENT

The payments have to be made to the seller's domicile and in accordance with the established conditions. In the event of a delay, the due amounts of money will automatically imply the charge of interests based on the official discount rate plus 5 points. In the event of a non-payment, the buyer is to be considered in default without the necessity of any formal notice by the seller. The presence of possible faults and/or defects in the products does not excuse the buyer for suspending the payment of the invoices. Should the client suspend and/or delay the payments, the seller may suspend the supplies, with the authority to consider the contract automatically terminated by rights and to demand for damages.
